that they can succeed in the public sector recruitment. In his address, Hon'ble Sudhir Mungantiwar assured the students that library will be built and opened for the students in all the tehsil of Chandrapur district and fulfil the objectives of Mission Seva. He also assured them that will provide all kinds of financial assistance for the proposed mission.

The Keynote speaker of the programme, Hon'ble Vishwas Nagare Patil, IPS, Kolhapur, shared his experiences of 26/11 Mumbai Attack on Taj hotel. He inspired students to study persistently and not to stop until the goal is achieved. He said that the students should be more focused on their vision and objectives and added that students have more challenging job to create their own path in pathless wood. He suggested students to select proper books and take proper guidance from experts.

The students from our college were directed to the programme by members of the Employment Cell – Dr. Vimal Dakhane, Prof. Nandkishor .G. Rangari, Prof. Manoj Warjurkar, and Prof. Girish Panchbhai.
